

ỌDÚN ÌRÁNTÍ FOR BÀBÁLÁWO AWÓDÌRAN

Tuesday, 12 November 2024 at 6 p.m. in the Jarše-Rodica cultural centre, Groblje 1 near Domžale, Slovenia.

We are going to collectively honour the memory of our spiritual father whose wisdom, wit, love, and elegance marked the history of the Odùduwà family. He passed into the world of venerable ancestors on this very day. We are going to thank him for all the wisdom and commitment he used to generously support our development for 18 priceless years.

In your thoughts, you may appeal to him for all the blessings you need in your lives. The ritual of celebrating a venerable spiritual ancestor is the unification of all energies, regardless of whether you are in need of healing, the acquisition or preservation of specific achievements, or the neutralisation of negativity. Therefore, your plea may be very extensive.

An offering will simultaneously be made in the Odùduwà temple in Abéòkúta, Nigeria.

The donation that makes the organisation of the event on both locations possible is a pair of banknotes of any denomination.

The individual ritual will be aimed at the projection of Orí for wisdom. Àṣẹ will come in the form of a marking on the Orí. The ritual will be performed by priests who specialise in sacred spiritual markings.

The donation for the Àṣẹ is €15.

Please attend the event in the Community's new, unified clothing. For more information, write us at info@orisa.si. You can also attend the event and the rituals in white clothes, without any visible markings.

Click the date of the ọdún ìrántí dedicated to bàbáláwo Awódìran in the Google Calendar at <https://orisa.si/en/events-2024/>, where a link to the application is going to appear. Please indicate on the application form if you wish to receive an individual Àṣẹ at the event as well.

Welcome!

The Spiritual Community of the Òrìṣà - Energies of Nature would like to thank:

- » the spiritual parents in àjé and òrun for all the Àṣẹ, knowledge, and trust they use to generously guide us on our path;
- » the Ire group for representing both the rhythm and communication at our events since 2007. Drumming and singing do not only create music and rhythm; first and foremost, they are the symbol of communication between humans and deities as well as among humans themselves (the symbolism of ẹgbé ayé). In addition, the Ire group traditionally organises the ọdún dedicated to the Òrìṣà of life and carries out projects that provide financing for temple altars, aṣọ, and many other things;
- » the ẹlẹgùn priests and priestesses who undergo a profound process of initiation and education to serve the society and facilitate the manifestation of the Àṣẹ of the Òrìṣà through the aṣọ of the Òrìṣà as well as all the atókùn, the priests who accompany them and establish communication;
- » the priests and priestesses who perform rituals at social and spiritual events with the help of assistants. They are all specialised to work with individual Òrìṣà. The unwavering commitment of everyone involved enables our Community to continuously organise unforgettable events;
- » the providers of the sàra ritual and everyone else who contribute to this unforgettable event either by taking part or helping out.

Àṣẹ!

Everyone's spiritual intimacy at the event is of utmost importance; therefore, any type of individual audio/video recording or photographing of the event is forbidden. Please respect that. An authorised representative of the Community will document only the ritual and the manifestation of the Àṣẹ of the Òrìṣà through the aṣọ of the Òrìṣà but none of the participants.
